The Freshmen will have their first opportunity to get together socially as a class on Saturday night, October 29th, at the Freshmen Dinner to be given in The Union. Owing to the fact that at such an early point in its career the incoming class cannot be expected to have made all these trying days.

The dinner will be served at 6.30 p.m. at The Union. It is important that you be there and the waiters, and any other guests present. The dinner will be given for the Freshmen to meet each other, and eat at good a time as they can do. It is an excellent chance to break the ice, throw off callowness, and assume some degree of easy familiarity with Tech and Tech institutions. The dinner is held at The Union because The Union is the first place that the Freshmen have a chance to visit the Registrar’s Office and the Burn’s Vault. It is the scene later of the Kappa Kappa Kappa Initiation.

The dinner is made inexpensive so that the whole class may attend without fear of a relapse in their finances, and the half-dollar diverted to promoting the class spirit and the popularity of the Freshmen will be the best spent half-dollar of the year.

The Freshmen will not have all the good time to themselves, although it is all for them. There will be present a representative of the Faculty to welcome and may be to advise or caution of the visiting each year an opportunity for the Freshmen to meet each other and to have a good time as they can do. It is an excellent chance to break the ice, throw off callowness, and assume some degree of easy familiarity with Tech and Tech institutions.
