HARVARD DEBATING CLUB.

Two debating clubs have been organized at Harvard this year. They are christened the Forum and the Agora, and are intended to take the place of the class debating societies. This new plan for 1906-07 was put into effect at a mass meeting in Dane Hall, at which Prof. G. P. Baker made a very stirring address. The Pasteur debate medal, which has always been the trophy for the interclass debates, will be transferred to the debate between the Forum and Agora.
