THE TECH

Monday, November 26, 1906.

The combined musical clubs of the Institute, representing the Glee, Banjo, and Mandolin Clubs, will give the annual winter concert on the evening of Tuesday, Dec. 4th. This concert will be given as usual, in Potter Hall, at the New Century Building. The management has secured the services of an outside orchestra, and after the concert there will be dancing in Howe Hall in the same building.

MUSICAL CLUBS.

The different clubs have been giving several individual concerts but these have been merely in preparation for the winter concert. They have been working all fall practising on the pieces and good performances are insured. Besides the regular club performances, additional attractions will be offered in the shape of extra soloists, who are expected to be very good.
