atory after the first exercise.

MECHANICAL ENG. SOCIETY.

What promises to be the most successful meeting of the Mechanical Engineering Society for the year will be held at the Union Tuesday evening, Nov. 27. At this meeting Mr. W. L. Underwood will give an illustrated talk of one of his most popular tales.
It is exceedingly fortunate for the society that they have been able to obtain such an entertaining and prominent lecturer as Mr. Underwood. At the business meet-ning before the talk the advisability of having a society dinner next month will be discussed and plans formulated for carrying it out.

CIVIC CLUB MEETING.

At a meeting of the Civic Club held Friday evening at the Tech Union an address was delivered by Mr. F. N. Balch.

Mr. Balch first traced the history of Boston's population. At the beginning the city was purely Back Bay element has rendered Boston's politics a hard problem.

There are 16,000 registered voters in Boston and only 74,000 ordinarily come to the polls, and the missing 42,000 represents the swellest element of the city.

To counteract these two dangers in city politics the Public Informational engineering society that they have been able
