I. GEOLOGICAL JOURNAL CLUB.

On account of Friday, Feb. 22, being a holiday, the Geological Journal Club will meet this week on Thursday, at 4.15, in 14 Pierce. Prof. T. A. Jaeger will read Prof. Pickering’s Paper, “The Volcanic Problem and the Origin of the Moons,” and other papers will be presented by C. M. Hutchins, ’07, and D. B. Myers, ’07. All interested are invited to attend.

ALUMNI NOTES.

C. A. Sawyer, ’02, III, who has been located in Greensboro, N. C., for the Andrew D. Fuller Co., has recently returned to Boston.

W. P. R. Pemberton, ’02, IV, in association with Martin C. Miller, of Buffalo, was one of ten architects to win in the preliminary competition for the city’s new library. They receive a prize of $800 and an allowance of $1,000 for making plans for the final competition. As the other winners are among the best known architectural firms in the country, the work of two such young men as Messrs. Pemberton and Miller is particularly creditable.
