SPRING TRAINING BEGINS.

Bright Prospects With Forty Candidates—\[\text{Rest of the text is not legible.}\]

HOOK NIGHT PLANS.

Definite Arrangements not Announced—\[\text{Rest of the text is not legible.}\]

TECH SHOW POSTER.

Competition was Successful—G. R. Very

The Tech Show poster has been chosen and this year it is not to be the work of a professional, but that of a freshman. The number of original designs submitted made a choice difficult. However a poster drawn by S. R. T. Very, the names of which in charge have given out rather vague outline of the plans for the evening.

Among those who have agreed to risk the tortures of the amateur poster are:\[\text{Rest of the text is not legible.}\]

PROFESSOR SWAIN ON THRIFT.

On Monday afternoon Professor Swain read Dr. Munger's Essay on Thrift. This essay is an exposition of the existence and importance of thrift among our people today. Professor Swain read in part as follows:

"Americans have become accus-

PRICES THREE CENTS.

NOTICES.

Ohio Club—The Ohio Club will have a dinner at the Union tomorrow at 6 p.m.

Cross Country Association—Meeting of the Cross Country Association today at 1 o'clock in 36 Rogers.

Hare and Hound—There will be a Hare and Hound Chase on Saturday, March 23, at Hyde Park. Everybody is requested to come out.

1909 Baseball—There will be a meeting of candidates for the 1909 baseball team in Huntington Hall at 1:15 p.m. today. All sophomores who have ever played baseball are asked to be present.

Catholic Club—There will be a meeting of the Catholic Club in 10 Rogers tonight at 8:30. Rev. Rev. J. Leech of St. John's Seminary will deliver an address upon "Science and Revelation." All students are welcome to attend.

Technique Art Staff—Anyone wishing to try for 1909 Technique Art staff can do so by showing some of their work to the committee in charge. Leave drawings with M. Flagg (any afternoon except Friday) in 439. Competition closes April 8.

PROF. SEDGWICK IN BROOKLINE.

Vol. XXVI. No. 62

BOSTON, MASS., WEDNESDAY, MARCH 20, 1907

PRIOR THREE CENTS

TECH VOL. XXVI. No. 62

SPRING TRAINING BEGINS.

Bright Prospects With Forty Candidates—\[\text{Rest of the text is not legible.}\]

HOOK NIGHT PLANS.

Definite Arrangements not Announced—\[\text{Rest of the text is not legible.}\]

TECH SHOW POSTER.

Competition was Successful—G. R. Very

The Tech Show poster has been chosen and this year it is not to be the work of a professional, but that of a freshman. The number of original designs submitted made a choice difficult. However a poster drawn by S. R. T. Very, the names of which in charge have given out rather vague outline of the plans for the evening.

Among those who have agreed to risk the tortures of the amateur poster are:\[\text{Rest of the text is not legible.}\]

PROFESSOR SWAIN ON THRIFT.

On Monday afternoon Professor Swain read Dr. Munger's Essay on Thrift. This essay is an exposition of the existence and importance of thrift among our people today. Professor Swain read in part as follows:

"Americans have become accus-

PRICES THREE CENTS.

NOTICES.

Ohio Club—The Ohio Club will have a dinner at the Union tomorrow at 6 p.m.

Cross Country Association—Meeting of the Cross Country Association today at 1 o'clock in 36 Rogers.

Hare and Hound—There will be a Hare and Hound Chase on Saturday, March 23, at Hyde Park. Everybody is requested to come out.

1909 Baseball—There will be a meeting of candidates for the 1909 baseball team in Huntington Hall at 1:15 p.m. today. All sophomores who have ever played baseball are asked to be present.

Catholic Club—There will be a meeting of the Catholic Club in 10 Rogers tonight at 8:30. Rev. Rev. J. Leech of St. John's Seminary will deliver an address upon "Science and Revelation." All students are welcome to attend.

Technique Art Staff—Anyone wishing to try for 1909 Technique Art staff can do so by showing some of their work to the committee in charge. Leave drawings with M. Flagg (any afternoon except Friday) in 439. Competition closes April 8.

PROF. SEDGWICK IN BROOKLINE.

Vol. XXVI. No. 62

BOSTON, MASS., WEDNESDAY, MARCH 20, 1907

PRIOR THREE CENTS

TECH VOL. XXVI. No. 62

SPRING TRAINING BEGINS.

Bright Prospects With Forty Candidates—\[\text{Rest of the text is not legible.}\]

HOOK NIGHT PLANS.

Definite Arrangements not Announced—\[\text{Rest of the text is not legible.}\]

TECH SHOW POSTER.

Competition was Successful—G. R. Very

The Tech Show poster has been chosen and this year it is not to be the work of a professional, but that of a freshman. The number of original designs submitted made a choice difficult. However a poster drawn by S. R. T. Very, the names of which in charge have given out rather vague outline of the plans for the evening.

Among those who have agreed to risk the tortures of the amateur poster are:\[\text{Rest of the text is not legible.}\]

PROFESSOR SWAIN ON THRIFT.

On Monday afternoon Professor Swain read Dr. Munger's Essay on Thrift. This essay is an exposition of the existence and importance of thrift among our people today. Professor Swain read in part as follows:

"Americans have become accus-

PRICES THREE CENTS.

NOTICES.

Ohio Club—The Ohio Club will have a dinner at the Union tomorrow at 6 p.m.

Cross Country Association—Meeting of the Cross Country Association today at 1 o'clock in 36 Rogers.

Hare and Hound—There will be a Hare and Hound Chase on Saturday, March 23, at Hyde Park. Everybody is requested to come out.

1909 Baseball—There will be a meeting of candidates for the 1909 baseball team in Huntington Hall at 1:15 p.m. today. All sophomores who have ever played baseball are asked to be present.

Catholic Club—There will be a meeting of the Catholic Club in 10 Rogers tonight at 8:30. Rev. Rev. J. Leech of St. John's Seminary will deliver an address upon "Science and Revelation." All students are welcome to attend.

Technique Art Staff—Anyone wishing to try for 1909 Technique Art staff can do so by showing some of their work to the committee in charge. Leave drawings with M. Flagg (any afternoon except Friday) in 439. Competition closes April 8.

PROF. SEDGWICK IN BROOKLINE.