President Eliot have on the subject of football and the apparent advantages in the subject of football. He is not one that appeals to boys of the best class. Public spirit is a better one. If you tell a boy that he is given liberty, not to serve himself, but to serve the public, he is ready to take that view and assume the responsibilities that go with it. He will arrange his course intelligently if he understands that that course is being made a test of the lines in which he can best serve his fellow-men.

The Appellate Court of Illinois has decided that it is impossible to collect water rent from University of Chicago. Contention centered on the question as to whether the domitories were a part of the scheme of education of the school.
