Cornell University will soon celebrate the centennial of the birth of Ezra Cornell, the founder of the university. Among the many events of this year will be the opening of the new agricultural building.

The Williams baseball schedule comprises 21 games including contests with Michigan, Illinois, Chicago and Alabama Universities.

Although Michigan has been admitted to the Eastern Intercollegiate Championships, it has not yet decided to resign from the western "Big Nine" conference.

The News Letter devotes a page to the recognition of a gift of $50,000 to Johns Hopkins University, from the heirs of Charles L. Marburg; the condition of the gift being that it shall be used either to establish a professorship, or an endowed fund, to bear the name of Charles L. Marburg.

The trustees of the University of Chicago have announced that this will be the last year of the existence of Morgan Park Academy.

Dean Miller's announcement to the assembly of all college men in Sturgis Hall last Saturday afternoon that the three seniors who have been up before the faculty for smoking recently are not to be dismissed, but are put upon special probation, having pledged themselves not to smoke in future, came with relief to the students of Oberlin.

McMaster University has also been remembered. She is to receive $60,000 from John D. Rockefeller. Referring to the gift, The Mcaster Monthly says: "The only thing about John D.'s gift is 'taint enough."

The Princeton Triangle Club will present "The Mummy Monarch" as its play this year. Its schedule provides for twelve performances, some as far west as Indianapolis.
