TALKS BY MR. M. C. WHITAKER.
Mr. M. C. Whitaker, General Superintendent of the Welsbach Company, will begin his series of talks to Institute students Wednesday afternoon at 4:15 in 23 Walker.
Mr. Whitaker will discuss the problems of industrial organization and the best methods of satisfactorily solving these problems. His talk Wednesday afternoon will be on "Factory Organization." On Thursday afternoon at the same time and place Mr. Whitaker will discuss "Cost Keeping and Accounting," and on Friday afternoon he will take up the subject of "Employer and Employee."

The Welsbach Company is well known for its excellent organization and the pleasant relations between employers and employees; and the talks by its director should prove to be of much interest and practical value to Institute students. Students in Courses V, X, VIII, and Seniors in Course II are especially invited to attend.
Others who are interested should consult Prof. H. P. Talbot in regard to attendance.
