The future of fencing is now full of promise. All of the active members of this year's team will be at the Institute for two years to come, and there are several good substitutes that can be developed into first class material. On the first team there is Captain Bonneleau, Lange, Turner, and Loring, while Weinhagen is the best substitute in sight. All of these men have worked up into fine form this year and will be experienced men in the next season.
