COMMUNICATION

the underlying Technology spirit which we are to appreciate more must be revealed in our work. Most of us are ready to admit that a college situated in a small, quiet, country town is much more pleasant and appealing than one in the heart of a crowded, noisy city. But we know that in the former college there is bound to be a great deal of college life. The years that a man spends in Yale or Dartmouth are the happiest of his life, but there is something harmful about it. For college and dormitory life cannot go hand in hand with concentrated hard work. And it is only by having hard work that things worth while are accomplished. It is mainly by us, as students of Technology, to hold the prestige of the college. We are ready planning to go. Any others who may be interested in the Conference, write to or call upon Don S. Gates, secretary, Y. M. C. A. office, Eng. R. Building, Trinity Place.

PROF. TALBOT TO SPEAK.

Professor Talbot will address the Y. M. C. A. meeting at 7:30 P.M. in Trinity Parish Hall. As this is to be an informal talk, Professor Talbot has not announced a definite subject. It is always a treat to hear Professor Talbot, especially for men who do not have an opportunity after their first year.

SOUTHERNERS ORGANIZE.

Twenty-eight promoters of the Southern Club met on Tuesday afternoon in 152 Rogers to discuss the regular organization of the Club. J. E. Johnson was chairman. T. C. Keeling, '07, J. G. Rodgers, '09, and E. L. Moore, '07, were appointed as committee on a dinner which is to be held soon at the Union.

That "Collegy" Touch

You know there's something about the style of the well-dressed college man's clothing that distinguishes him from the crowd. This "collegy" touch of distinction is only possessed by clothing made by first class houses who specialize in the production of college men's clothing. It's the special mark of college men's clothing made by the well-known firm of
