and Bursar Rand, as a source of radiant energy—always.
Mr. Francis was presented with a camera, and many cheers for the new addition to his farm, a baby. He was quite touched and spoke of his relation with the Institute, and what it meant to him. He mentioned with particular emphasis the Faculty approval of the Show, and the pleasure it gave him, to satisfy not only the students but the Faculty.

HOLLIS STREET THEATRE.

Olga Nethersole's great personal popularity here in Boston, and her marvelous versatility as an actress will be employed to the utmost in the engagement at the Hollis Street Theatre, which brings to a conclusion her triumphant tour of the United States. She will be seen here in all the strong plays of her repertoire. The order of the plays for Колониалный Театр: "Адриена Лекювруа," "Камелеон," "Кармен," "Сапфо," "Авестиатор," "Камил," "Пин." The Second Mrs. Tanquerary.

COLONIAL THEATRE.

Richard Carle has started out for the merriest sort of a run at the Colonial Theatre, and "The Spring Chicken" goes on record as one of the best shows that he has ever given in Boston. The piece was an English musical comedy, fresh from London triumphs, and now dressed up with the American humor and drollery for which Mr. Carle is noted. He has given himself a capital character to assume, and he keeps everybody in the best of humor.

PARK THEATRE.

The San Carlos Opera Company, which has created so profound an impression here by reason of its splendid performances of grand opera at the Park Theatre, has completed arrangements to end the sailing from Boston so as to give more performances here, as follows: "La Boheme," "Faust," "II Traviatore," "Rigoletto," "La Traviata," and "The Barber of Seville.
