know it at the time, I was one of the many, I fear too many, who could not see the value of such studies, but I write to you now to tell you that I am beginning to appreciate their importance. In fact, last Saturday when in Boston I called at the Registrar's office and obtained a copy of the summer-reading books of last summer with a view to using that list as a guide for my future reading. I see also by the Review that in Courses I and XIII sixty hours more are being devoted to these subjects of general education. I take this opportunity to express my approval of this change." If you want to make money this summer

We have a proposition by which a good man can, in three months, make more than enough to defray his college expenses for the next year.

There is no outfit to buy and no catechism which you have to learn. All you need is your own gray matter and a little help from us from time to time.

If you will write us, we will gladly explain how we propose to make your next college year free from financial worry.
