The greatest interest of the day was centered in the high hurdles, which were finally won by the intercollegiate record holder, Shaw of Dartmouth, defeating Hubbard of Amherst, in 15.45 sec. Mayhew of Brown was third and Horrax of Williams was fourth.

The track team thoroughly distinguished itself, and its plucky effort called forth general admiration.

In the 100 yard dash, third place went to Brown, winning the mile run in 4 min. 33.8 sec. Tech's only place in this event was secured by Stearns of Amherst, who made one of the pluckiest efforts of the day, eventually placing fourth.

The 100 yard dash was won by getting third place in the discus throw, hurling the missile 215 ft. 5 in.

Three first place in the pole vault at 10 ft. 6 in. The two Dartmouth stars, Brederman and Whipple, tied for first and second at 10 ft. 11 in.
