CLUBS START WELL.

Musicians Hard at Work. Guitars and Tenors Needed.

The season for the Musical Club has opened under most favorable auspices. Many new men, attracted by the opportunities for pleasure and good-fellowship offered by the clubs, appeared for the trials, while a large number of old men have reported for practice.

There are few stars among the new men, but there seems to be no lack of good material, and under the present capable managers and leaders, there should be no difficulty in developing clubs of a high order of merit.

General Manager Hield, '10, is hard at work arranging an excellent schedule of concerts, and there need be no fear that the season will be unsatisfactory in that regard.

The Glee Club held its trials at the Union last Monday. Enough candidates were on hand to allow the selection of some excellent material. Much is to be desired in the way of experience and training, but a coach will be engaged, and this defect will soon be remedied.

Those retained for further trial are: Tenors—C. M. Pritchard, W. D. Green, W. C. Taylor, F. W. Willey, H. O. Jenkins, C. Youngerman, H. G. Hawes. Basses—E. S. Anderson, L. O. Mills, K. W. Faunce, G. M. Gadsley, K. R. Kennison, R. R. Taylor, L. W. Thenlar, L. E. Wemple, P. W. Norton.

The Banjo Club trials on Monday afternoon brought out few new men. There were no guitars at all, and the club can use several more banjos. Rehearsals will be held in 33 Rogers every Tuesday and Thursday at 4 P. M.

The trials for the Mandolin Club, held on Tuesday, only emphasized the lack of capable guitarists, for only one new performer on that instrument appeared.

Mandolas are also in demand. There were eleven new candidates for places with the old mandolinists who reported, so that this department should be well provided. Leader Coleman, '09, has extensive plans for the improvement of the club, and intends to supplement the mandolins, guitars, mandolas and cello with snare drums, and perhaps a violin and flute. The following are expected to report for rehearsal in 31 Rogers at 4 P. M. this afternoon.

A. H. Thompson, '08, F. J. Friedman, '08, M. Ames, '08, H. W. Griswold, '08, K. R. Kennison, '08, H. J. Stiebel, '09, R. W. Lesser, '09, E. E. Kilburn, '09, G. D. Whittle, '09, M. R. Scharff, '09, Lovewell, '09, M. D. Price, '10, W. D. Richardson, '10, J. H. Seoville, '11, K. W. Faunce, '11, J. K. Campbell, '11, W. W. Warner, '11, A. K. Wardwell, '11, D. R. Stevens, '11, Hubby, '11.

TECH IS A GRIND.

Life is a Battle, says Rev. A. A. Stockdale.

Among the interesting remarks made by Rev. A. A. Stockdale in his talk at the first noon meeting of the Technology Christian Association yesterday in Trinity Chapel, were: "Tech is a grind that makes for character as well as for education. Because life is a battle, the strong, virile part of a man is exercised."

"No young man ought to hold any religious view that causes him to compromise his conception of manhood. The right conception of manhood is one of the elements of Christianity. If your conceptions of manhood and Christianity conflict, test them and see which is wrong."

"It is a pleasure for a man to do the hard things. Our half hour meetings help us to recuperate our energies for the struggle."
