PROF. DEWEY writes a new book.

IS AN AUTHORITATIVE WORK ON RECENT ECONOMICS.

"National Problems," by Prof. David R. Cameron. Abridged and interpreted by Prof. Albert B. Simons. This work contains a complete and exhaustive history of the American Nation.

The work of writing this book has been the book has been

as Prof. Dewey says in his preface, "The first part of this essay encounters three embarrassments: first, the unsatisfactoriness of private statements and institutional histories; second, the overwhelming mass of detail which as yet has not been acknowledged, asserted and appropriately helpful in the third, the difficulty of securing a correct perspective in viewing evens, both domestic and foreign, upon our vision." But in spite of these embarrassments, the style is clear; concise and enterprising. Guides were supplied by holding the strong Mechanic and Engineers of the Junior Class, together with all there is to the proposition. Mr. Rufus B. Horrick of Winchester, Mass., has the chemical laboratory, and demonstrated the art of restoring a drooping person to life. The last lecture of the course will be held next Wednesday at 4 P.M.

PRESIDENT IN RELIGIOUS THOUGHT.

Prof. Talbot Tells Y. M. C. A. of New Conception.

Professor H. P. Talbot said, in his talk to the Y. M. C. A. yesterday, "Proper education is the basis of all good work. To understand the conditions, the spirit of inquiry has passed from the scientist to the religious field. The Bible will stand searching tests in its essentials. In spite of these conditions, the study of the Bible will stand searching tests in its essentials. The Bible will stand searching tests in its essentials.
