There is, however, also a need of some provision for the housing of those students who, for the present reason of their age, or of their home or of friends, or in fraternity to a common advantage, are unable to be of the body of students live in undisciplined sur-d of the nature of the four-year period high school. The educational activities of this vacation form one-third of the whole year; eral, well-behaved students in the campus.