THE PERFECT GIFT.

Christmas Brings About The Nearest Approach To This Ideal.

Prof. Geo. B. Haven of the Mechanical Department spoke at the Y. M. C. A. meeting yesterday. He said in part: "The Christmas story is always new. At this time it is fitting to consider what it is a perfect gift. The perfect gift has these characteristics: first, it must cost something; second, it never hopes for return, does it only a happiness. third, it must express the good will of the sender and give happiness to the receiver."
