IN REGARD TO COMMUNICATIONS

The Board of Editors of The Tech wish it to be understood that the columns of the paper are open to anyone connected with the Institute, for communications. In this column, in order to prevent absence of this right, the Board has decided to print only those communications that are signed.

Things are moving. The project to use Copley Hall for the good of the students is under way. Whether the movement will be a success or not depends on the students themselves; or not to be impressed, its success depends on the individual man who is reading this and only this.

Without a doubt if the students show the Corporation and the Faculty, and the Allied Memorial Committee that they are aware of the possibilities of the new arrangement, that they will work for it and support it enthusiastically now and hereafter, the movement will be successful. Otherwise, if the students act merely with enthusiasm and only when Andrew Copley Hall will be used as in the past. For although the students are of course tremendously interested in the possibilities of the new arrangement, that they will work for it and support it enthusiastically now and hereafter, the movement will be successful. Otherwise, if the students act merely in enthusiasm and only when presented with a large amount of money by the Memorial committee. It is certain that these expenditures will not be made unless these in charge feel sure that the new arrangement will after completion receive enthusiastic support from the student body as a whole. In fact it would be plain policy for the Institute and the committee, at considerable sacrifice, to give the student body something that it did not very much want.

Without question the students are sin-
