SONG OF THE STEADY STUDENT.
I am here to get a college education,
I can't help it—I must get a mastery of books.
I read in intervals of meditation.—
It's rough, they say, but I don't care for books.

They joke about me—say I'm one be

That the light from my green gloes is quiet.

But I grit my teeth—I do abide such

And keep snapping up the knowledge I've on prise.

When the time comes round to have a class election,

I am lost—don't really know a single

But can they tell angel of nature se-

Pirate's Neos, Kent's philosophy? 1 can.

What are baseball, football, hockey, track athletics?

We're not here, it seems to me, for

But can't you tell you said my class-

Emancipate yourself

We're not here, it seems to me, for

I grit my teeth—I do abrade each

But can they tell aught of natural se-

And keep snapping up the knowledge I've on prise.
