TEAM IS IN GOOD FORM.

Tumbling, Club Swinging, Work on Long Horse, Side Horse, Horizontal Bar, and Flying Rings Will Be Seen.

According to all present indications the gymnastic exhibition which will be held at the New Union this year will be a much improved one. The exceptionally good men as many as last year's men are back and the new men are showing up strongly.

The program will consist of tumbling, Indian club swinging, and work on the long horse, side horse, horizontal bar, parallel bars and flying rings. Several other features will be added, such as boxing, boxing and wrestling.

The tumbling will be worked on by a high order, Byron, Howell, Coleman, and Wilson, who are all made such a good finish last season, and it is believed that they will be very clever on the mat, as are all, in excellent form, making a strong combination. Contests will be run, and all those who have seen him before know him to be a clever performer.

All the work of the team should stand out strongly.

All the men who worked on this event last year are back and last year's team are showing up very well. Howell, Robichaud, Gort, and苏宁 thank, several new men will work on this apparatus.

On the side horse Gury and a new man are doing some clever work. Darow and Robichaud hold the honors for the new men.

Good support is needed to keep the team in shape to its high standard of other years.

NEW UNION FUND GROWS.

Ticket Sale For Hippodrome Reaches 4,000 Mark.

Over a thousand dollars has been taken in by The Tech management on the sale of Hippodrome tickets for Tech Day. President Smith is constantly sending in for seats, and the undergraduate organizations have taken large blocks. The Technology Club has sold the largest block of tickets to date. The president of that club is a member of the alumni association with the following handsome sparkler in the event will be presented.

The teams are expected to be greatly used by their owners, and the proceeds will be turned over to the fund.

Tickets are on sale at the Cage.

Yale, Harvard and Tech will Fight Out First Round of Championship.

Technology sends Yale and Harvard at the Gym Saturday night in the preliminary of the National Intercollegiate Meet. The two best teams from the NYAC, Tech and Yale, are expected to be in top form to face the challenges.

All three teams are well matched, Yale being considered the highest probable candidates. On the other hand, Harvard and Tech are expected to give Yale a great deal of competition.

The Institute team has been training hard all winter and should show up fairly well, in spite of the fact that there has been but one practice meet thus far.

The line up will probably be as follows:

Yale, Harvard and Tech, with Tech leading.

Thie is the gymnastic exhibition which will be held at the New Union. The gymnastic exhibition which will be held at the New Union.

Gymnastics may be considered the most important of the arts of the body, and the most essential to the health of the individual. It is the art of maintaining the proper balance of the body, and of developing the powers of the mind and the body.

The gymnastic exhibition which will be held at the New Union will be a great improvement over the exhibition which was held last year. The exhibition will be held under the direction of Prof. H. E. Swain, who has been appointed chairman of the gymnastic exhibition committee.

TECH DAY ON NOVEMBER 14th.

The first day of Tech Day will be devoted to the gymnastic exhibition, which will be held at the New Union. The exhibition will be held in the afternoon, and the gymnastic exercises will be performed in the morning.

The gymnastic exercises will be performed by the teams of Yale, Harvard, and Tech, and will be judged by Prof. H. E. Swain, who has been appointed chairman of the gymnastic exhibition committee.

The exhibition will be opened by the reading of the address of the president, and will be followed by a short exercise in the art of gymnastics, performed by the teams of Yale, Harvard, and Tech.

The exhibition will be concluded by the reading of the address of the president, and will be followed by a short exercise in the art of gymnastics, performed by the teams of Yale, Harvard, and Tech.

The exhibition will be concluded by the reading of the address of the president, and will be followed by a short exercise in the art of gymnastics, performed by the teams of Yale, Harvard, and Tech.