SENIORS TO DECIDE TODAY

MEETING AT ONE O'CLOCK.

Speakers at Class Day Exercises Were Elected Last Friday.

Elections for the Class Day executors, held at a meeting of the Class Day Committee last Friday, resulted as follows:
orator, J. G. Riddell; gift orator, G. T. Glover; orator, B. L. Gison; historiographer; and proctor, presentation orator, H. F. McGaugh.

A meeting of the senior class will be held at 1 o'clock today in Huntington Hall to decide whether the news was from the faculty in regard to the incredible competition in the annual spring track meet Saturday at the Field. In most of the events the finishes were very close and the contest between the four classes was very keen.

After a very even and hard fought contest the seniors won from the juniors by last two-thirds of a point. The scores were lent for the occasion by the class of 1911, and the costumes assumed the shape of a dragon. The mule, of course, won. J. A. man will receive his notice through the

As a general rule the expected happenings of the day were thoroughly covered by the 1910 Technical Election Committee. In some cases there were a few surprises, but the mem-gave should be distributed after the annual dinner, as in other years.

At a meeting Friday, with 28 present, the majority decided that this feature of the dinner be done away with, but the meeting today is being held in order that a larger number might express their opinions.

Another question to be decided is whether the dinner shall be held on Thursday or Friday evening, of Senior V'Week.
