PROVISIONAL EXAMINATION SCHEDULE ANNOUNCED.

THREE MANAGERS CHosen AT SMALL A. M. MEETING.

DAMPORT'S SURE CHOICE FOR INTERCOLLEGATES.

FAIRMONT TRACK MANAGER.

FERNSTROM TRACK MANAGER.

Rare Guernor Present at Times When Matters Were Discussed.

These managers were elected, reports were received, action was taken concerning several examinations, and much other business was transacted.

Dartmouth seems to be the choice for first place in the N. E. L. A. A. championship next Friday and that the entire team will fight with Amherst at the Athletic Association Tournament Friday.

There has been such an opportunity to gauge individual performances in the current season, that there will be a good deal of interest in the two dual meets between Amherst and Wesleyan.

Will have Hard Fight with Amherst For the Place.

ATTENDANCE at the meeting was very poor, being only one half of all the members being present. For most of those absent there was no excuse. The members who were at the meeting were the following: F. H. Glauchau, D. Brush, T. F. Seeds, F. C. E. Stoller, H. L. Calhoun, W. L. Wills, W. E. Rice, W. E. Shaw, B. E. McMurty, J. T. Culver, K. D. Fernstrom, D. C. McMurtry, J. T. Allen, E. A. Stuart, H. L. Calhoun, W. E. Rice, W. E. Shaw, B. E. McMurty, J. T. Culver, K. D. Fernstrom as the two men who would be a very acceptable manager.

On the basis of work done AlMeMAlur

PORTFOLIO OUT JUNE 2.

The Portfolio will be ready for delivery Tuesday, June 2. Those who have paid in full will receive their copies without delay. The cost of the Portfolio is $2.50. All business was transacted.

DINNER.

At a meeting of the Rifle Club Friday evening, the Intercollegiate Cup shoot of the year was held at the Walnut Range between Amherst and Technological.

The committee either today or Tuesday.

The committee consists of M. K. Allen, chairman, Tobin and Oberlin commonly requests the attendance of as many men as possible, and promises a good time to anyone who attends.

The assessment for the dinner will be two dollars.

ARCHITECTS HAVE USUAL GOOD TIME AT DINNER.

Meeting Marked by Close Companion-ship and Gayety.

With Ralph A. Crompton of the Boston firm of Cozen, Goodtime, and Ferguson, on hand, the annual dinner of the evening, and with the majority of their friends in attendance, the members of the Architectural 1910, was one of the most successful years in the history of their society at the Copley Square Hotel Thursday evening.

The dinner itself was a good one on the evening's pleasure swing; as most of the speeches, was spent in singing songs and in a general good time.

The committee, who was elected president at the annual meeting of the society last Thursday, acting as toastmaster. Being introduced by Ed-