NOTICES

Books for Tech Show, 1909, are now due, and none will be received after November 1. Books must be complete—no skeletons or scenarios will be considered. Each author must call at the cage for a numbered envelope. In this he is to place his name, class and address. The book submitted must bear the number corresponding to the envelope. Any book marked with the author's name will not be considered. Address this envelope and book to Richard F. Goodwin, Jr., Stage Manager. G. A. Joslin, Gen. Manager.

GLEE CLUB TRIALS—at New Union. Basses come Monday at 4.15; Tenors come Tuesday at 4.15. All old members must try out also.

M. A. H. S. CLUB—First meeting Thursday, Oct. 8, 7.30 P.M. Refreshments. Election of officers. Admission free.

FACULTY NOTICES

PRECISION OF MEASUREMENTS. To accommodate college students who desire to make up the course in Precision of Measurements at once, a special section will be formed, provided enough students apply.

Those desiring such an arrangement will please meet me in 23 Walker on Monday, Oct. 5 at 4 P.M.

H. M. Goodwin.

Course IV students in Heating and Ventilation will attend the first four lectures in general Physics, Heat, in 22 Walker.

W. V. Lyon, instructor in electrical engineering, will issue a book of electrical problems in a short time.

Manager Williams has been fortunate in securing the services of W. H. Simons, ex-halfback of Princeton, as coach.
