1912 VICTORIOUS

Bridgewater Normal Loses Game 23 to 6

Bridgewater Normal found it impossible to stand up against the freshman football team. Although their first and only goal in the first six minutes made the start look otherwise, the final score was 23 to 6.

Tech received the ball first but through fumbling the lighter Normals succeeded in making the first points theirs. The Freshmen never lost the ball on downs. Fumbles and poor forward passes proved their weakness.

The Normals were quite successful in forward passes, but it was impossible to break through the heavier opposition. Their quarter back played a very good game.

Among those who played best for 1912, were acting Captain Raymond as left half back, A. Eicher, quarter back, and Hooper as center. The rest were H. E. Kebdon, J. C. Whittlesby, S. R. Mackeller, R. H. Riddell, W. C. Barnes, B. Torry, H. Greenleaf, S. R. Robinson and W. Shuttleworth with A. G. Gale as manager.
