GOVERNOR FORBES

He should not agree to this at all, were it not for serious conflict between our students and the police which took place on a situation that the troublous of four years ago started simply from one of those unfortunate minor decisions that sometimes occur in spite of the best intentions on the part of individuals. The police in the Island and the difficulties it had overcome. He attributed the present state of the government and the cooperation of the nation to the influence and ability.

President Hayes dismissed the conversation on a few words on the subject.

The President is in New Orleans.

The Parade is Tonight.

No man allowed to march unless he has a Uniform.
