somedown and quickly; but now everything thing is built in a permanent fashion to be continued to that obstacle to which it had been a marbled edifice. Mr. Forbes went on to show that he did not find in the Filipino taking up the "quarrel of road building. They even increased the taxes on themselves for these purposes. He closed with a few words on the whole matter. Mr. Taft had reached the Islands, the serious problems he had faced and the difficulties he had overcome. He attributed the present state of the government and the co-operation of the nation to his influence and ability.

President Noyes dismissed the conver sation with a few words on the torchlight procession which followed:

"I should not speak of this, were it not for serious conflict between our students and the police which took place on the occasion of this more ancient and about which certain incendiary articles appeared recently in the newspapers. All I wish to do is to make known to you the fact that the troubles of four years ago started simply from one of these unfortunate misunderstandings, which sometimes in spite of the best intentions on the part of everybody. The police had received orders from the Commissioner of Police, at the request of the Institute authorities, to keep the pollys, but the trouble that occurred in the course of the meeting of the Institute was not made clear to the police as a whole. But unfortunately there was no opportunity to make the orders known to the students and the police. Consequently while on the one hand the students were united in their demand for the maintenance of the order which the citizens of a great city have a right to demand; but they were punished for this
