TECH NIGHT SPIRITED

Sophomores and Freshmen Enliven Performance of Soul Kiss

Tech Night at the Colonial Theatre proved a tremendous success. The pretty girls of the Soul Kiss company were cheered and applauded enthusiastically by sophomores and freshmen alike. Serpentine streamers proved a factor of importance in the fun-making. The freshmen had three large banners swung from the balcony and between the acts ran another across the theatre from one side to the other. The sophomores were not shy on decorations either, having two large banners on the boxes. They also changed several of the lines, referring to the Union and to Registrar Humphreys. A copy of The Tech was also used on the stage. In the college number the chorus men all wore 1911 arm-bands, and gave the familiar "We are Happy." This was greeted with great enthusiasm. Miss Genee's dancing was especially appreciated and she seemed to enjoy the event as much as the fellows themselves.
