Technology's Prospects for Victory Better Than Ever Before

GREAT ENTHUSIASM

Two Hundred Students Cheer Teas for Leagues for Princeton

With a roaring sendoff by more than 200, the cross-country team left the Engineering Library, Princeton University, on the evening of its journey to the inter-collegiate meet at Englewood, N. J., 7, "The Cardinal and The Grey" were noisy and rosy, and all joined in the singing of the "Song Steeple Song" with lusty voices.

The seven men taken were: Capt. E. F. Ellinger, H. C. Gilchrist, W. C. McArthur, 1909; J. C. McElroy, 1910; L. G. Scull, 1910; J. D. Schwartzman, 1911; and E. M. Innis, 1909. Coach Frank Kanaly accompanied the team.

Just before the train pulled out, Coach Kanaly gave the following message to the team: "The men have already run two hard races as a team, and have been training together since the middle of October. This has made a wonderful difference in their ability as a team. The race at Englewood will be a very important one, and the men have been working very hard, and their practice runs have indicated that Tech should win a very good race. The main point is to run as a team, and to train in the best way possible. The men should try to do their best, and the result will be a good one."

The men are already running as a team, and they will be in good condition for the race. The team is well equipped with the latest in running shoes and the best in running gear.

The race will be run over a 10-mile course, with the finish line at the Princeton University track. The race will start at 11:00 a.m. and will last for about two hours. The weather is expected to be clear and mild.

The team is well-prepared and confident of a good showing at the meet. The men are looking forward to the race with great enthusiasm and are ready to give their best efforts on the day of the meet.

The team consists of the following members:

1. E. F. Ellinger, Captain
2. H. C. Gilchrist, Vice-Captain
3. W. C. McArthur, 1909
4. J. C. McElroy, 1910
5. L. G. Scull, 1910
6. J. D. Schwartzman, 1911
7. E. M. Innis, 1909

Coach Kanaly has given the team a strong message of encouragement and has assured them of a good finish. The team is determined to win and is ready to give their best efforts in the race.
