Dr. Noyes' brief message in this issue is quite likely read by all. It expresses a feeling of appreciation of the noble character behind it. His attention to the essential guidance of personal benefits for the self-imposed standard of the qualification that duty is worthy of close attention and admiration from every man who regards it. Examples of men giving up long cherished ambitions because they feel that they cannot do well, but that others can do better, are indeed rare. With pressure brought g[...]

The Tech regrets to announce the resignation of Dudley Clapp 1910 from the board of associate editors.

The regular Friday issue of The Tech will be published this week on Saturday morning because of the fact that it is impossible to lay off lineengraving and press work done on Thanksgiving Day.

The Tech has received a communication from "H. L. H." and requests that the writer give his name to the editor-in-chief, so that it can be printed at the end of his article.

Dr. Noyes' brief message in this issue is quite likely read by all. It expresses a feeling of appreciation of the noble character behind it. His attention to the essential guidance of personal benefits for the self-imposed standard of the qualification that duty is worthy of close attention and admiration from every man who regards it. Examples of men giving up long cherished ambitions because they feel that they cannot do well, but that others can do better, are indeed rare. With pressure brought g[...]

The Tech has received a communication from "H. L. H." and requests that the writer give his name to the editor-in-chief, so that it can be printed at the end of his article.

Dr. Noyes' brief message in this issue is quite likely read by all. It expresses a feeling of appreciation of the noble character behind it. His attention to the essential guidance of personal benefits for the self-imposed standard of the qualification that duty is worthy of close attention and admiration from every man who regards it. Examples of men giving up long cherished ambitions because they feel that they cannot do well, but that others can do better, are indeed rare. With pressure brought g[...]

The Tech has received a communication from "H. L. H." and requests that the writer give his name to the editor-in-chief, so that it can be printed at the end of his article.

Dr. Noyes' brief message in this issue is quite likely read by all. It expresses a feeling of appreciation of the noble character behind it. His attention to the essential guidance of personal benefits for the self-imposed standard of the qualification that duty is worthy of close attention and admiration from every man who regards it. Examples of men giving up long cherished ambitions because they feel that they cannot do well, but that others can do better, are indeed rare. With pressure brought g[...]

The Tech has received a communication from "H. L. H." and requests that the writer give his name to the editor-in-chief, so that it can be printed at the end of his article.