SECOND TEAM WINS OPEN ROAD RACE

In Thanksgiving Cross Country Championship of New England

OCTOBER MILL COURSE

LEADS NEAREST COMPETITOR BY 30 POINTS. ONLY ONE VARSITY MAN RUNNING

That Technology is not entirely dependent on the race at Princeton for cross-country honors was proved when the team prize, offered by the A. I. A., was captured by a team of Tech men, only one of whom ran in the intercollegiates. A race for the second place is necessary as the University of New England is held full by the A. I. A., on Thanksgiving day, and it is the first time that a team prize has been put up in addition to the prizes for first, second, and third place. The distance run was ten miles and the course led from East Lexington and return by the same roads.
