OFFICERS APPOINTED

Appointed by Major Wheeler for Good Work—Lieutenants are Davis and Forristall

Major Wheeler made the following appointments in the battalion Friday: To be second lieutenants—H. C. Davis 1911, and G. B. Forrestall 1911. To be sergeant-major—H. S. Pierell 1912. To be sergeants—F. H. Busby 1912, and J. S. Selfridge 1912.

There is a large list of applicants for commissions, and in appointing the two commissioned officers, Major Wheeler has appointed men whom he thinks are best fitted for the positions, judging from their ability to command, previous work in the battalion, and quality of judgment. H. S. Pierell received the highest work on his examination.

F. H. Busby was promoted from the ranks, and J. S. Selfridge from a corporal in company A.

ALUMNI NOTES

Prof. George F. Swain 1877, John R. Freeman 1876, and Charles T. Main 1876, have been appointed by the council of the American Society of Mechanical Engineering at the request of the National Conservation Commission as a committee to assist that body in judging the value of water powers.

Henry A. Fiske 1891, manager of the special risk department of the Phoenix Insurance Company, will leave the employ of that concern on January 1 and will associate himself with the firm of Henry W. Brown & Co, of New York. Mr. Fiske graduated from course X in 1891 and from VI in 1892. After graduation he became an inspector of the underwriting bureau of New England and in time became manager, holding that office until he became connected with the Phoenix, about five years ago.

Ralph T. C. Jackson 1906, is about to open an office as an architect in Fall River. He supervised the construction of the recently completed Union hospital in that city.

Charles L. Lufkin 1908, left New York Dec. 5, for San Juan, P. R., where he has secured a fine position on a large sugar plantation.

REVOLVER PRACTICE

Revolver practice of the M. I. T. Revolver Club began last Saturday, and matches will continue weekly at the Boston Revolver Club range on Atlantic Avenue.

Fred M. Green 1909, has been elected executive officer and D. P. Marvin 1909, club treasurer. It is hoped to arrange a match in the near future with the revolver club of Harvard and possibly with some other college clubs.

MORE GRINDS WANTED

The Grind Department of Technique has received a great deal of excellent material and the outlook thus far is very encouraging. Drawings and more good anecdotes are wanted, however, and as the Grind Editor wants to look over material during the holidays all are urged to make contributions as soon as possible. A prize of five dollars is offered to the man sending in the best collection of grinds.

The engagement of Miss Helen Drew Ripley, of Harvard street, to Frederick Gardner Clapp 1901, of Pittsburg, formerly of Dorchester, is announced.
