The Union is indebted to the class of 1908 for much of its heavy fall turniture, The chandelier is probably the most beautiful piece that was put up in the social room.

From the Tech. has come a complete set of Technology Review, and it is

The Union Society has presented a beautiful gift which will be put in the the social room as soon as can be arranged for them. Several modern works have recently been furnished by the entertainment committee.

Photographs of the events of the last few days have been framed and hung in the social room. Professor Russell has contributed a large photograph of a modern painting which will be placed in the social room.

A suggestion box has been made with the cooperation of the Institute Students

Committee. This will be placed in the social room near the stage, and it is hoped that any suggestions for improvement in the conduct of the Union will be presented through this source.

Respectfully submitted,

J. M. FITZWATER.

Chairman.

Entertainment Committee Report

The entertainment committee submits the report in three parts: first, the entert-
