BROOKLINE H. S. CLUB

Last Saturday evening the regular meeting of the Brookline High School Club was held at the home of W. J. O'Hearn 1910, the newly elected captain of next year's hockey team.

A. P. Truette 1910, the principal speaker of the evening, gave a humorous talk on Maine camp life, based on ten years' experience at his own camp at Greenville, Maine.

G. C. Kenney ex-1911, read one of the best "logs" that has been written this year. The "log" is an informal record of the club's social doings, exclusive of the minutes, and is written by the several members in rotation.

After refreshments and the regular fun, the club broke up at 11:30.

Things are rushing along pretty fast now with the Show. The applications came in thick and fast, 650 being received. This number is a trifle more than the number received last year.

The attempt made this year to give all classes fairer chances to get seats seems to be successful with some exceptions. It is a little hard to tell just yet how it will work out, but it is safe to say that very few men will use seats secured from others who will not be found out, and all of these men will be blacklisted.

The poster sale this year was unprecedented, and the first lot of 500 has been practically sold out. The success of the large poster was such that it has been decided to get out small cards with a reproduction of the poster in colors. These will be a souvenir of Junior Week and a convenient reminder to send to a guest. Last year small reproductions of the poster were made, although not for sale, and the men who saw them were so much taken with them that a large number asked to have souvenir postals this year. These cards will be on sale Wednesday at the Cage where The Tech is sold at five cents each.
