1915 Wins Another Victory From 1911 in Cross Country

As most of those expected who have followed the cross-country work this spring, 1912 defeated 1912 in their 1-mile race last Saturday. The score was 2 to 4. W. Watkins ran a great race, winning in 21 minutes, 23 seconds. D. Newell split many neckties by taking second.

H. S. Doss 1912, did some fine work for the Pierce team, and showed chances of winning to his team mates. As a result, Turner and Goodnight, both of whom are in the second year, were elected along with the six seniors and sponges to retrieve the weary runners back to the line.

At the first half mile, hoss 1912, had the lead back to fifty at the mile mark. Watkins took the pace at the halfway mark and ran the finish, and won by 80 yards over Mac
