NOTICES

1910--All men who attend Prom, whether they signed up or not, who have not paid, kindly see some member of the committee and settle up at once.

MOVING PICTURES.--In the presentation of the moving pictures of Technique rush, which is on at the Bijou Dream this week a new and greatly improved film will be used. Those who saw the pictures last week say they are very good. They will be shown only today, tomorrow and Wednesday.

TECHNOLOGY CLUB.--The ninth Smoke Talk of the season will be held on Tuesday, April 27, at eight o'clock. Captain C. C. Carter will speak on the "Coast Defences of the United States." The talk will be informal and non-technical, and will be illustrated by lantern slides.--Robert S. Williams, Secretary.

Meeting of the Catholic Club will be postponed until Tuesday, May 4th, when Mr. McSweeney of the Traveler will speak. This will also be the last meeting, therefore election of officers will take place.
