President's Address, 3rd marshal. Scharff, 1st marshal; Carl Critchett, class president; Maurice R. Maugnac, to receive some gift, the nature of which has been the custom in former classes to ward them. The closing speech is that of Carl W. Gram, the Presentation of Class Gift. As has been the custom in former years, the class will present to the Institute some gift, the nature of which will not be made known until this time. The Class Day officers are James Critchett, class president; Maurice E. Scharff, 1st marshal; Carl W. Gram, 2nd marshal; and Harry E. Whitaker, 3rd marshal.

The complete program is as follows:

Music: Tech Orchestra.
President's Address: James Hamilton Critchett, 1st marshal; Maurice E. Scharff, Class Prophecy: James H. Huntington Allen. Presentation of Class Gift: James Irving Finnie.

Tech Orchestra.
Class Prophecy: James H. Huntington Allen.
Presentation of Class Gift: James Irving Finnie.

1909 COMMENCEMENT

At 2:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon the candidates for degrees will receive their diplomas from the President in Huntington Hall. The men will meet in the morning for full instructions, and will gather again at 1:45 for the exercises.

Abstracts of representative theses will be read by representatives of each course as follows:

Course I: Civil Engineering—An Investigation of the Efficiency and Character of Failure of Different Methods of Anchorin Reinforced Bars in Concrete—R. B. Burghele.

(Continued on page 10.)