THE TECH FORMER
EDITORS TO DINE

Annual Event of Association at Hotel Westminster TONIGHT

Past and present editors of The Tech will get together for their annual din ner tonight at the Hotel Westminster (Copley Square, at six o'clock). As The Tech will next year, or at least as a daily, the meeting this year should be a most significant one.

Last year nearly 40 members of former Tech boards met and appointed a committee to consider the matter of permanent Association of Tech Editors, with Arthur B. Little '88 as chairman. This committee will render its report at tonight's dinner, and several prizes to bring before the former pew riters.

American Poetry and Progress from The Tech board and Science, and Architecture. Outside financial aspects of a paying proposition. The expected to be on hand. The price per plate is $2.00.

Through the active efforts of several men who had a genuine interest in the old frieze, it became possible in 1904 to secure the original designs made by Mr. Nefflen, and with them in the pos session of the Institute, a desire to re-

With the completion of the panels available the work has been push-lished. All the work being designed and ed along.

The panels completed this year are

the west wall, from back to front: "Iron Casting," by J. T. Mohn; "Ship-

Carpenter," by E. I. Williams. Two large panels, "Naval Architecture," by Rinker Kibbey, and "General Se-tric processes displayed on the murals. Thev remained until the sum-

1905, it beclame possible in 1904 to

The class of 1905 at once be raised. The class of 1905 at once

The competition for the five positions

tions to bring before the former pen-

It is desired that men from other classes than 1911 will also draw, and it would be particularly advantageous for men from 1912 to submit work in glass blowing or caricatures for the gold department during the sumnals panel. "The Potter," by K. E.

Composition was closely followed the

There has been said that in this wa-

on hand,

John Bethel and C. C. Ford; another rope, and Architecture. Outside financial asnians. The class of 1905 at once

In the active efforts of several men who had a genuine interest in the old frieze, it became possible in 1904 to secure the original designs made by Mr. Nefflen, and with them in the pos

session of the Institute, a desire to re-

to the position of printers, Tech clubs ments to bring before the former pew writers.

American Poetry and Progress from The Tech board and Science, and Architecture. Outside financial aspects of a paying proposition. The expected to be on hand. The price per

plate is $2.00.

Through the active efforts of several men who had a genuine interest in the old frieze, it became possible in 1904 to secure the original designs made by Mr. Nefflen, and with them in the pos

session of the Institute, a desire to re-

With the completion of the panels available the work has been push-

lished. All the work being designed and ed along.

The panels completed this year are

the west wall, from back to front: "Iron Casting," by J. T. Mohn; "Ship-

Carpenter," by E. I. Williams. Two large panels, "Naval Architecture," by Rinker Kibbey, and "General Se-

tric processes displayed on the murals. Thev remained until the sum-

1905, it beclame possible in 1904 to

The class of 1905 at once

be raised. The class of 1905 at once

The competition for the five positions

tions to bring before the former pen-

It is desired that men from other

classes than 1911 will also draw, and it would be particularly advantageous

for men from 1912 to submit work in

glass blowing or caricatures for the

gold department during the sum-

nals panel. "The Potter," by K. E.

Composition was closely followed the

There has been said that in this wa-

on hand,

John Bethel and C. C. Ford; another

rope, and Architecture. Outside financial as-

nians. The class of 1905 at once

In the active efforts of several

men who had a genuine interest in the old frieze, it became possible in 1904 to secure the original designs made by Mr. Nefflen, and with them in the pos

session of the Institute, a desire to re-

to the position of printers, Tech clubs

ments to bring before the former pew

writers.

American Poetry and Progress from The Tech board and Science, and Architecture. Outside financial aspects of a paying proposition. The expected to be on hand. The price per

plate is $2.00.

Through the active efforts of several men who had a genuine interest in the old frieze, it became possible in 1904 to secure the original designs made by Mr. Nefflen, and with them in the pos

session of the Institute, a desire to re-

With the completion of the panels available the work has been push-

lished. All the work being designed and ed along.

The panels completed this year are

the west wall, from back to front: "Iron Casting," by J. T. Mohn; "Ship-

Carpenter," by E. I. Williams. Two large panels, "Naval Architecture," by Rinker Kibbey, and "General Se-

tric processes displayed on the murals. Thev remained until the sum-

1905, it beclame possible in 1904 to

The class of 1905 at once

be raised. The class of 1905 at once

The competition for the five positions

tions to bring before the former pen-

It is desired that men from other

classes than 1911 will also draw, and it would be particularly advantageous

for men from 1912 to submit work in

glass blowing or caricatures for the

gold department during the sum-

nals panel. "The Potter," by K. E.

Composition was closely followed the

There has been said that in this wa-

on hand,

John Bethel and C. C. Ford; another

rope, and Architecture. Outside financial as-

nians. The class of 1905 at once

In the active efforts of several

men who had a genuine interest in the old frieze, it became possible in 1904 to secure the original designs made by Mr. Nefflen, and with them in the pos

session of the Institute, a desire to re-

to the position of printers, Tech clubs

ments to bring before the former pew

writers.

American Poetry and Progress from The Tech board and Science, and Architecture. Outside financial aspects of a paying proposition. The expected to be on hand. The price per plate is $2.00.