Tech men lead as usual, others follow—wireless telegraphy, aeronautics, et al.

At the Feld Wednesday afternoon the candidates for the sophomore relay team were surprised to see senior class men initiating the freshmen into track tactics in the preparation for Field Day.

As a usual thing the junior class is the one which helps the freshmen and the seniors have usually lent their aid to the sophomores, but under the conditions seemingly prevailing at present, the two upper classmen seem to have united in an effort to help the class of 1913 defeat the class of 1912.

It is hoped that the seniors who have been aiding the freshmen will see their way clear to once more return to their former friendship for the sophomore class, especially in this matter of preparation for Field Day.

1911 NOMINATIONS

TIGERS EVEN SERIES

In a game marked by heavy hitting and over-anxiety on the part of both teams, the Tigers evened up the series with the Pirates at three games apiece by winning yesterday's game at Detroit by the score of 5 to 4. The game was the closest of the series so far and not until the last Pittsburg batter had been retired in the ninth inning was the result determined.

Cannitz pitched for Pittsburg in the sixth and was very ineffective, although but one run was scored by the Tigers. The run was the result of a single by Schmidt, Wilson's error, a pass to Bush and Cobb's double.

Pittsburg made a game rally in the ninth, but fell short by one run. Miller opened up with a single, and Abstein followed suit with another one good for a base. Wilson made the third straight hit off Mullin and scored Miller. Gibson hit a grounder to Crawford, who had replaced T. Jones at first, the later having been severely hurt, and Crawford threw Abstein out at the plate. Abbaticchie bated for Phillipi and fanned, and Wilson was out trying to steal third, ending the game.

The deciding game of the series is to be played at Detroit tomorrow, and the winning team will be pronounced champions of the world.

The score:

	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	r	h	e
Detroit	1	0	0	2	1	1	0	0	x	5	10	1
Pittsburg	3	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	1	4	9	2

Batteries: Mullin and Schmidt; Willis, Cannitz, Phillipi and Gibson.

TARGET PRACTICE

Target practice for members of the freshmen battalion and also for upper-classmen at the Institute is held Saturday afternoons on the Wakefield Ranges, weather permitting. It is under the direction and charge of Major Wheeler and those who wish to join the party should leave their names with him and get orders for rifles. The armorer at the South Armory will not give out a rifle without a written order from the Major.

The squad will take the 1:35 P. M. train from the North Station for Wakefield on Saturday, instead of the 2:15 P. M. train as heretofore. Major Wheeler has tickets for the train, and when bought from him, the round trip costs 22 cents on the train plus 5 cents each way on the trolley car from the R. R. Station to the Ranges.

The ranges are 200, 300, and 500 yds., and men who are going out for the first time will be put on the 200 yds. to start.

GEOLOGICAL TRIP

at the N. Y. N. H. & H., Back Bay Station. From the latter there is an inward train at 2:08 P. M. and another at 2:20 P. M. From Quincy the trolley will be taken to a point near Hayward Creek, which is back of the Fore River Ship and Engine Works. The cost of the trip will be five cents to the South Station, fifteen cents to Quincy and five cents to the Fore River Works, making a total round trip expense of fifty cents.

Prof. Shimer says that it will be necessary for each member of the party to bring a hammer for studying the rocks. On last year's trip to Hayward Creek a party of over two dozen men went along, and as it is an interesting and instructive jaunt a good sized party is expected this week. It is open to any member of the Institute who cares to avail himself of the opportunity.
