1912 PLAYS NEWTON

Telling Game To Be Played On Latter's Ground Today

This afternoon the 1912 football team will play one of the hardest games of the season, that with Newton High. Newton has always been known to put out a speedy aggregation and this year is no exception. The 1912 team is in good shape and will put up a hard battle.

Captain Eicher will not be able to go into the game today, but by next Saturday he will play. P. H. McOsker will also be out of the game from injuries received last Saturday in the game with Lowell Textile.

Last Friday Newton High held the fast team from Villkman to a 0-0 game. Barber, the quarter-back, is one of the best in the preparatory schools around Boston. Capt. Gallagher, right end; Allen, full-back; and Hopkins center, have put up a good game all season, and have attracted the attention of football experts around Boston.

The probable lineup for 1912 will be: Swensan, center; Kebban and Robertson, guards; Whittlesey and Kimball, tackles; Robinson and Torrey, ends; Barnes, full-back; and Roberts at quarter.

The sophomores at Lehigh University won the annual Founder's Day sports, defeating the freshmen in the relay race, baseball and football games.

Soccer football is gaining in popularity at Princeton, two full teams being on the field at the daily practices.

man and ran across the tape a victor for 1912.

Without stopping, Oettinger passed the flag to H. R. Fox, who started out against the first substitute of English High, C. L. Stromach. Fox gained five yards.

The rest of the 1912 substitutes ran in the following order: A. R. Davis, J. I. Taylor, J. H. Pratt, A. J. Freedman, against C. S. Patrick, S. C. Gutton, J. I. Gordon, A. J. Obstand, P. H. Hardwick. Each Tech man gained at least 15 yards on these last men, and 1912 ended with a victory, at least 200 yards ahead of the last English High man.

BRITISH EMPIRE ASS'N

The British Empire Association held the first meeting of the year on Tuesday, in 16 Rogers. The following new men were reported as being British subjects, and as such, eligible to be members of the society: F. R. Barker 1913, St. John, N. B.; S. R. Basu 1913, Bengal, India; A. Frigon 1911, Montreal, P. Q.; E. S. Neily 1911, Nova Scotia; L. M. Sanderstein 1912, New Zealand; C. A. Robb and Smith Montreal, and N. M. Clark 1913. Any other Britishers are urged to leave their names at the Cage for the British Empire Association, so that the officers can interview them and explain the aims and benefits of the society.

All men are cordially invited to come to the dinner which will be held at 6:30 P. M., in the Union, on the King's birthday, Tuesday, Nov. 9, 1909.

CURRENT EVENTS.

President Maclaurin of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology will make his mark here as a public speaker if he should continue to give addresses along the lines of the one which he made before the Pilgrim Publicity Association. Dr. Maclaurin is evidently a progressive man who will strongly influence the various civic betterment movements now under way here.—Boston Journal.

The play chosen for production this year by the French Club of Cornell is "Le Bourgeois Gentilhomme." It will be given some time in November. An agreement has been made between "Les Cabotins," the French dramatic club, and the corresponding German society that they are to alternate in giving plays, each club to give one every other year.

Announcement has just been made of an annual prize for public speaking at Cornell. The prize is offered by Mr. R. A. Eastman of Waterville, N. Y., and is of $100 value. Competition is open to members of the College of Agriculture only.

At Illinois there are fifteen companies in the military regiment, the largest in the history of the college.

GREAT MASS MEETING.

Thirty-seven present!—Isn't that a fine record for 1913? Is Kanaly's statement about the track true? If it isn't, take the trouble to look in The Tech and on the bulletin boards to see when meetings occur. At the next meeting which will be held soon we must have a real crowd. It's up to every one. We want every man who has ever led cheers and would like the job on Field Day, to come to the meeting prepared to do his best. Everyone will get a fair chance.

Don't let it happen again that when a meeting is called no one shows up.
