I

C'

-16, 1872, when three goals were scored in the inter-dlorllitory rowing race.s; at flag rush. ing at full speed.

tercollegiate game was played May 7, ball played by Yale was on November men through thick, upright posts in same score.

1874, when McGill was beaten by the out to the Field and see the antagoluncheon, but will try hard to come MAiss Elsie .hanis cannot attend the luncheon these young ladies will go to the "Fair Co-Ed" company will be pres-plenty of fun-with time in between for 19,2-lve

Six crews have qualified for the finals Colorado University has abolished the Minnesota's football coach runs his

The first intercollegiate game of foot-tions are necessary and good, even so when the Philadelphia Club will give the University Concerts on November 8,

The dropping of an elevator in the University of Wisconsin library came near creating a panic among the stuents in the reading room. No one was

Dr. Eliot of Harvard has been appointed president of the National Conservation Association.

Pennsylvania will start its series of University Concours on November 8, when the Philadelphia Club will give the first of six concerts.

Herbert Rosenberg, of the Irish Am-erian A. C., has entered Brown University. Last year as a member of the Morris High School in New York city, he won the Metropolitan high jump with a feet 11 inches.

To know where to subscribe—and where not to—is an art. To fresher this art is unknown. As some subscriptions are necessary and good, even so others are unnecessary and extravagant.
—Yale Daily News.

Six crews have qualified for the finals in the inter-dlorllitory rowing race at Harvard.

At Pennsylvania the English Department announces several prizes to be competed for by members of the three upper classes.

New York University upperclassmen on Friday, gave the freshmen their answered in the "Foundations of Knowledge," no the little pond next the college has been termed. The "freethins" were compiled early in the evening and made to get into their pajamas and in center of a throng of senior boys, the classmen were escorted to the "fruit." Each freshman must perform and if he refused or was unable to satisfy the judges, he was plunged into the icy water. The scene was witnessed by a large number of people from a amphitheater which had been built around the pool.

Thirteen games have been scheduled for the coming of the season of the Princeton basketball team. Prospects for winning combination are considered bright.

Glee Club—sweet music. Pretty girls, plenty of fun—with time in between for a comforting smoke of Fatimas.

Fine Turkish Tobacco skilfully blended, aged and mellowed for two years.

In a neat but inexpensive foil package, that means ten extra cigarettes to you.

THE AMERICAN TOBACCO CO.