A manor class dinner has been returned and will be found on the table in the lower corridor in Walker.

1913 dinner and pipes

The freshman class pipes have arrived, and will be distributed at this dinner. There are many reasons for putting off the dinner until this time. In the first place, the pipe of the freshman class that the victory on Field Day was never properly celebrated and it was suggested by some members of the 1913 class that the pipes be formally lighted on the night of the dinner. The committee in charge of the 1912 class pipes have reported a very small sale so far, due to the lack of interest of the 1913 men, or as somebody suggested, they are too young to smoke yet. The pipes cost $2.85 and $3.45 and are well worth the price to smoke yet. The pipes cost $2.85 and $3.45 and are well worth the price.
