

"THE DOPESTER"

1913-Melrose today. Good Luck, freshies.

The freshies seem bound to establish poor precedents here at the Institute. Even though the captains of the different field day teams may be good men, there is no reason why they should be given the honor two years in succession. Give somebody else a chance.

Now for some skating weather.

Enter for the Gym Team meet. Entry book in the Union.

Don't forget "Indoor" practice.

Go ahead, Burnham. Form that freshman track team, that is the proper spirit.

Don't forget the B. A. A. meet at Mechanics Building, Feb. 12.

INTERCOLLEGIATE NEWS.

The Michigan Daily printed a Koanzaland supplement Tuesday. This issue is devoted to the play presented by University of Michigan Union.

The rumor that Mr. Walter Camp's foot-ball honor roll will replace his selection of an All-American team this year is unfounded. His selection of the team will appear this week.

Henry Clayton, the meteorologist and aeronaut will lecture at Yale today on the "Rapidly Advancing Art of Navigating the Air With Aeroplanes."

TECH METHODS USED

Again the Technology system comes to the front. The training in the use of reference books which has for some years been part of the work in freshman English at the Institute, has now been introduced at Harvard. The idea and the methods adopted at Cambridge are those in use here, and are frankly acknowledged to be so.
