

CURRENT EVENTS

That the committee of Copenhagen in its preliminary examination of his records failed to discover that Dr. Frederick A. Cook reached the North Pole is the information received from a high authority yesterday by the Associated Press.

Popular opinion at Copenhagen appears to have undergone a gradual change, the impression now prevailing that Cook's papers are not sufficient proof of his claims.

GENERAL NOTICES.

FIRST YEAR.

Entrance Condition Examinations.
First-year students are expected to take at the end of the present term all entrance examinations in which they have not already clear records, with the following exceptions:

1. Students having conditions in entrance History and entrance Physics. No examination will be held in entrance History and entrance Physics at the semi-annual examination period.
2. Special students taking no work dependent on entrance subjects in which they have not clear records. Such students, if they desire to become regular, may take remaining examinations in June or September.
3. Students who are now making up
