TECH SEVEN WINS IN TWO HOCKEY GAMES

Defeat Grecians 5-1 While Dartmouth Game Ends With 1-0 Score

At the Stadium a week ago last Saturday, the Tech seven defeated the Grecians by a score of 1-0, and last Saturday Tech defeated Dartmouth, while the Grecians defeated the Broad-town team.

Technology won a poorly played game from Dartmouth by a score of 1-0. Both teams showed that they lacked practice and displayed but little interest in the work. The only score was made in the first period when a dartmouther shot into the Grecian territory but the Grecians scored the goal. The Dartmouth forwards tried much to receive but little assistance from the forwards, who appeared to be aloof.

The game was very rough and a number of players were ruled off. The officials' names: Offeree.

The results of the hockey games:

THE CHRISTMAS PARTY AT DR. MACLAURIN'S HOME

Old Mumming-Play Successfully Presented By Former Show-Men

On Christmas eve the home of Dr. Mac- laurin was the scene of one of the most enjoyable Christmas parties ever given to the Tech students whose homes are a long distance from Boston. All those students who could not go home for the vacation had such a remarkably good time that they would not have been there if they were not at their own homes and with their own families.

Nearly two hundred men were assem- bled by eight o'clock, and they sang all the Tech songs in the song book with spirit. Then the Glee Club, led by F. J. Caldwell 1911, sang some old, new, and English Christmas Carols. Following this Professor Charles Dickens' "Christmas Carol" and then the "Bells of St. Mary's," a "mumming" play, was presented.

R. B. McIlroy of Oregon took the part of St. Nick. E. D. Scott of California, who was also of Oregon, was Father Christmas; R. P. Sherman of Manilla was the Dragon; K. O. Robinson of San Francisco was the Ghost of Christmas Present; E. O. Jordan of San Francisco, was the Doctor. The play had no plot; St. George simply fought against evil spirits, the doctor then brought those poor wretches back to life so that they could walk off the stage, and finally all per- formed a "Bells-around-the-Olives" dance about the prostrate form of Dr. Mac, who had not yet fully recovered. It was a crude play, but it was cleverly done and gave the spectators a quaint and delightful Christmas.

After the play, when Dr. MacLaurin's Thomas E. Mathis and Dr. T. C. Maclaurin again spoke at the ban- quet, Thursday night, of the American Association, which President of the Association, Dr. T. C. Maclaurin was the scene of one of the best受到了称赞的。在星期二或星期四的"圣诞节"会上，这些穷苦人走下舞台，最后所有的人都散开了。不过，这是一次成功的晚会。
