INTERCOLLEGIATE NEWS

"The returns for the last term of scholarship marks at the office of the dean of the college show an uncommonly good record for the men of the football squad," says the Yale Alumni Weekly. "Bettered scholarship has synchronized with the training of a championship team, and, perhaps, the best team that has ever represented Yale on the gridiron. Such a result for a single season is not, of course, conclusive. It may possibly be a coincidence rather than a co-relation of athletic and mental forces. But it does make pretty strongly for the idea that in case of the individual athlete there is no excuse for his charging athletics with his low scholarship stand if he has one."
