THE TECH, BOSTON, MASS., THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 17, 1911.

Published daily, except Sunday, during the year by the students, to be able to enforce measures urged in his message. He has already had several personal interviews with the various leaders in the Senate and House in regard to the matter. He will probably send a special message to Congress at once.

Washington, Feb. 17.—President Taft is very much displeased at the slow progress Congress is making in disposing of the important measures urged in his message. He has already had several personal interviews with the various leaders in the Senate and House in regard to the matter. He will probably send a special message to Congress at once.

Washington, Feb. 17.—The friends of Robert E. Peary in Congress will not rest content with the decision of the House Naval Committee to award the Arctic explorer a vote of thanks and $1000, and the 14-inch coast defense gun shat-

THE ARENA

Benson, manager of the track team, Waterman, assistant track manager, Fillings, captain of the boxing team, and Gould, manager of the hockey team, Harried, president of the M. I. T. A. A.—Congratulations.

The New England Inter-collegiate Athletic Association has decided that the Tech field is the best place to hold track and field events in the New England. The Tech will meet the Dedham and Newton teams.

A basket-ball game cannot be won unless you have the better team. Tech evidently has not a team of the best players, although there are several good men on the team.

Gould is a member of the Prom committee. Does that interfere with the hockey management and with your work in the paint shop? It seems that it does.

The Freshmen have athlete ability, without doubt. They have won Field Day and the basket-ball series from 1902. Now for track and baseball.
