

THE ARENA

It has been pointed out that the time the two-mile relay team at the Wrentham Light Guard meet was the record for that track. The Medford track is the smallest in this part of the country, and that time of eight minutes, forty-one seconds is a remarkable showing for the team.

The Sophomores intend to continue carry off athletic honors from the freshmen. They have started out to win in the baseball series. The battery candidates practice three times a week the gym.

The gym team had rather tough luck at Salem last week. One of the judges was the Salem director, and he certainly handed out some raw decisions to the Institute men.

Both the hockey and basket-ball seasons have closed and neither has been successful. Tech is becoming a "good loser." The players are contented with simply holding their opponents down instead of being only satisfied with a victory. It is the wrong kind of spirit to show, and should be done away with.

Harvey Benson is making a strong bid for a place in the Institute's "Hall of Fame" in athletics. He'll get it, too if he continues to show the same determination and stick-to-it-iveness that he has in the past. His running last Saturday was a big feature of the meet.

Katzenberger of the Freshman track team is certainly making good in the office of manager. He carried on the Freshman meet in fine style, and at last year's underclass meet he was right on hand, looking after his men and everything in general.

G. A. Horfeck of the Wanderers' Hockey Club of New York, an authority on hockey, in selecting an all-collegiate hockey team picks the entire Princeton defence, Read, Blair and Peacock, Heron of Yale, Kay of Princeton, Crasswelter of Cornell and Hicks of Harvard as forwards. Peacock he selects as captain.

George C. McPartlin, the Waterbury and former Eastern League pitcher, has taken charge of the battery candidates for the baseball team at Yale. He has been engaged to coach this department of the squad until they go South for the Easter trip on March 25. Billy Lush, the general baseball coach, will arrive at New Haven tomorrow.
