THE TECH

Published Daily, except Sunday, during the college year by students at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

Entered as second-class matter, Sept. 29, 1900, at the post office at Cambridge, Mass., under the Act of Congress of March 3, 1879.

R. H. Ranger 1911—Newspaper.

A. L. Fabens 1910—Editor-in-Chief

L. Rosensteirn 1910—Inst. Editor

G. M. Meahl 1912—Special Editor

B. H. Moore 1912—Gen. News Editor

L. G. Pittberhert 1911—Athletic Editor

Business Board,

D. N. Frazer 1911—Editor in Charge

M. W. Trask 1911—Athletic Editor

G. M. Keith 1912—Society Editor

A. W. Kenney 1913, Editor in Charge.

Entered as second-class matter, Sept. 29, 1900, at the post office at Boston, Mass., under the Act of Congress of March 3, 1879.

GENERAL NEWS

TELEGRAPH NEWS OF THE MORNING.

WEATHER REPORT.

Washington, D. C., March 23—Forecast for Boston and Vicinity—Fair with brisk and possibly high southwesterly wind. The club now numbers over 70 members and from 35 countries.

Cambridge, Mass., March 23—that balmy, languid feeling of spring must be firmly established in the systems of the Harvard undergraduates at Cambridge. Either that or the hook worm, for the Harvard Chronicle reports that a new, rather fantastic, pecu- liarity seems to be the fashion of the day. If it were the former, the Chronicle's editor has come up with a most accurate editorial severely scorning those men-freud, happy undergraduates who "look on their college life as a pleasant interlude between the solemnities of their school days and the prosaic realities of the business world."

Boston, Mass., March 23—Eugene N. Foss, Democratic candidate to succeed the late President Levering in the 14th district, has been elected overwhelmingly by returns yesterday afternoon. His margin of victory is placed at a high as 10,000. William E. Dushane, his Republican opponent, was left under an avalanche of votes. C. P. F. men knifed him mercilessly.

Newton, Mass., March 23—Mayor Charles E. Hatfield of Newton received a letter this morning from the Pacific Corresponding Club of Spokane, Wash., asking that the mayor send the names of all unmarried women in the city to the secretary of that club, the object being to find wives for all the unmarried members of the club.

Stamford, Conn., March 23.—Albert Crone of Strawberry Hill has given $25 for the New Stamford Hospital. The fact became known last evening when the note on Wood Street was purchased.

Hanover, N. H., March 23.—Manager Keeler today issued the schedule of the Dartmouth football team for next fall. It is one of the poorest ever arranged in point of home games, only four teams coming to Hanover, where six formerly was the number.

The schedule follows:

Oct. 2, Colby at Hanover.

Oct. 15, Vermont at Hanover.

Oct. 22, Williams at Williamsburg.

Oct. 29, Princeton at Princeton.

Nov. 1, Amherst at Hanover.

Nov. 12, Harvard at Cambridge.

Boston, Mass., March 23—George W. Coleman, indicted by the federal grand jury in 68 cases of misapplication of the funds of the National City Bank of Cambridge, and Wilson W. Locohr, in-