WEATHER REPORT.

Washington, March 29, 1910—Fair and warmer Tuesday, moderate to brisk southwest winds.

Mobile, Ala., March 29—The local wireless telegraph office today opened a despatch that Dr. Frederick A. Cook has not been on board the dirigible Albatross, en route from Cuba.

Baring, Mo., March 28—Edward Payson Weston arrived here at 8 o'clock this morning. He is 10 days ahead of his schedule.

Chicago, March 28—Football is once more in good standing at University of Chicago as the result of the changes made in the rules at Wednesday's meeting of the rule committee in New York. Owing to the new safety precautions Chicago is assured of contests with Indiana, Purdue, Illinois, Minnesota, Northwestern, Cornell and Wisconsin.

New York, Mar., 29—Dr. Frederick A. Cook, who has been reported of late as "en route to New York" is, according to the latest rumor, at the home of his wife's sister, Mrs. Haury Harvey, at Peasucka, Camden County, N. J.

WASHINGTON, D. C.

Washington, March 28—As an expression of the appreciation of the administration of Panama for the good offices of the United States in obtaining an agreement between Costa Rica and Panama for the settlement of a boundary dispute between these countries, Dr. Belisario Porras of Panama tendered a luncheon to Secretary Knox and other officials of the State Department.

Washington, March 28—The Navy Department expects to score one of the greatest triumphs in wireless telegraphy when the scout cruisers Birmingham and Salerno try to communicate over a distance of 3,000 miles with the wireless station at Frank Rock, Mass.

Washington, March 28—A rescue of the sailors of the house-boat is being called for next week to arrange the program of putting through that body of the administration measures now pending in Congress. This was agreed upon at the White House today.

FOREIGN.

Catania, March 28—The eruption of Etna is subsiding. The lava is now flowing at the rate of only three yards an hour. Much snow fell late yesterday in the upper regions of the mountain.

London, March 28—A telegram received today at the Colonial office from the governor of the Fiji Islands, says that a disastrous hurricane struck Suva, the capital, last Thursday, and that it is probable that the whole group suffered.

Chebourg, March 28—Marcel Dupin was found to be a dangerous anarchist, was arrested here when embarking on a steamer for New York.
